

TE ARA WHĀNAU

THE FAMILY SOLUTIONS MODEL

HE PŪ HARAKEKE, HE PĀ HARAKEKE

Te Ara Whānau, the Family Solutions Model is Family Works' unique way of working with whānau facing significant and complex challenges. It's different, because it engages the whole whānau and provides a wide range of services which are tailored to the needs to the individuals and whānau as a whole.

Ko te kāhui ringawera nāna te Te Ara Whānau i whakarere, kua urua paitia ki te hōtaka akoranga tikanga taketake, ngungū rakau ā hapori, ā whānau i te pā ō Rātana, 17-18 Mei 2017.

The staff who deliver Te Ara Whānau are required to successfully complete the Family Works Cultural Competency programme launched at Rātana Pā on 17-18 May 2017.

TE ARA WHĀNAU VALUES

Mana

We'll retain the mana (respect and integrity) of all involved.

Whakapapa

We draw energy from whānau, tūpuna (ancestors) and others.

Aroha

We come from a place of caring, compassion and love.

Manaakitanga

Our support that encompasses hospitality, respect, generosity and care for tamariki (children), families and whānau.

TE ARA WHĀNAU WAY OF WORKING

He kaimahi whakapono ki te mahi, ki te whānau. Workers are dedicated and committed to each whānau.

He ringa raupā te tautoko. We provide practical hands on support.

He kāhui whānau whānui te eke. We consider the whānau as a whole.

He kaupapa herenga wairua, herenga hinengaro, herenga tinana. He kaupapa herenga tangata. Having a common purpose and being clear about what we are all doing together.

Eke panuku, eke tangaroa. We will be strong tireless and honest.
